Literacy rate of India 2021

- Literacy rate of India 2021 : Literacy level and educational attainment are vital indicators of development in a society. In earlier Censuses up to 1981, it was customary to work out the literacy rate taking into account the total population. Since literacy rate is more meaningful if the sub-population in the age group 0-6 is excluded from the total population, it was decided in 1991 to calculate literacy rate for the population seven years and above. The same concept has been retained in all Censuses since 1991. A person, who can only read but cannot write, is not literate. In the censuses prior to 1991, children below five years of age were necessarily treated as illiterates.

- The literacy rate taking into account the total population in the denominator has now been termed as 'crude literacy rate', while the literacy rate calculated taking into account the 7 and above population in the denominator is called the effective literacy rate. The formula for computing crude literacy rate and effective literacy rate are as follows:

- Crude Literacy Rate = Number of Literate persons X 100 / Total Population

- Effective Literacy Rate = Number of Literate persons aged 7 and above X 100 / Population aged 7 and above
